

SCIGRIP appoints Winroy Industrial Polymers Ltd as Irish Master Distributor

27th August 2015, Washington, UK – SCIGRIP, the global supplier of smart adhesive solutions, is delighted to announce the appointment of Winroy Industrial Polymers Ltd (trading as W.I Polymers) as their new Master Distributor for Ireland.

This arrangement is effective from the 1st September 2015 and W.I Polymers will stock and coordinate the distribution of SCIGRIP's complete range of engineering, structural adhesives and assembly range of products.

SCIGRIP and W.I Polymers already enjoy a very successful partnership in the distribution of their structural adhesives so this new venture will see both organisations working even closer to expand SCIGRIP's complete range of industrial products.

During the past two decades, SCIGRIP's Engineering solutions have been used with great success within the OEM and MRO industrial sectors. For further information, please contact Helen Hamilton, SCIGRIP's Product Manager for the Engineering Adhesives Range at Helen.hamilton@scigrip.com.
